Our company is renowned for its reference, history and cultural heritage books. There is a huge variety of titles and series being published in the non-fiction domain, from travel books to health and nature titles, dictionaries to cookery books and exclusive leather-bound facsimile collections.

Also, Kossuth is one of the very few publishing houses in Hungary that continue to undertake major in-house projects. Such projects have helped to establish our company as a highly respected publisher in Hungary.

Here are some of our own development projects:

HUNGARIAN CODEX
The series of six volumes compiles all the major periods of Hungarian history and culture, both in pictures and writing, from prehistoric times until the threshold of the third millennium.

6 volumes · 456 pp / volume · 200 × 285 mm · CD-ROM included

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF HUNGARY
Published jointly with the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, the seven volumes cover all the essential geographical, economic, cultural and social data of modern Hungary.

7 volumes · 550 pp / volume · 202 × 285 mm
