

Júlia Sára: Mamiko's Daytimes

Mamiko is a retired nursery-school teacher. She does not speak a lot, but she is very good at listening to others. She hugs who needs to be hugged, wipes off the teardrops if somebody is crying, and helps the lost find the way home. She is a professional sleeper – or rather a professional watcher who is paid for spending the night in a sad apartment. She listens and helps to sleep.

The nights are full of secrets and stories. Stories coming from ruin pubs, underground bars, and dark basements in tenements – and somehow they are all connected to each other in the magical night in Budapest.
