

Laszló Kelecsényi: I Will Be Your Memory

Dénes Keleti is a university student in his twenties. His life seems to be happy and easy. Love and art are the most important things for him. But he cannot find real love and his relationships do not long last. He cannot find any attitude model to follow, either. He joins the party without really wanting to but also signs the petition of the opposition. Nothing is obvious but losing her mother, who tells him his father's name before she dies. Now he has no choice: he needs to take over control of his life, if he is able to.
